Work in Progress (by Jan Parrish)

“Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.”

~ Philippians 1:6

Though I’ve been a Christian for 40 years, I’m still a work in progress. Yet it’s reassuring to know that no matter where I am in my Christian walk, God is at work, honing my character to match His.

It seems that the sins I struggled with as an immature Christian no longer plague me. But as I mature in the faith, I wrestle and seek to overcome the more subtle sins. When I’m home at last, sitting at the feet of Jesus, I’ll be free from the very presence of sin. But until then, I know I’ll occasionally fall. Even Billy Graham, one of the most prolific and well-known evangelist of our time, admits to sinning every day.

But Christ Jesus cannot fail! You and I are His work of art, a project in purification. As He does His cleansing work within, let us encourage one another and treat one another with the utmost patience. That is we can remind one another regularly with this acronym that once appeared on colorful lapel buttons: PBPGINFWMY – Please be patient, God is not finished with me yet.

Thank you, Jesus, for choosing my soul as Your workshop. I’m encouraged to know that what You have started there You will continue to completion. Do shape me into the person You created me to be.

*In Jesus’ name,
Amen.*
