Sermons Ala Carte brings the community together for a meal, music and a sermon each Wednesday at 12:05 p.m. over a six week period leading into Easter. In many church circles these weeks are called "Lent" which is a solemn time of focus and preparation to help believers consider the death of Jesus. Area churches work together in providing the meal. The small donations received not only cover the cost, but also provides funds which are shared with area agencies who work directly with people during a time of need.
